Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus Philippians 2:5

Clap Your Hands!

Thank you, Sanctuary Choir, for your great music this past Sunday! If you weren't in the 11:00am worship service this past Sunday, you missed a spirited selection that included some energetic hand clapping participation from the congregation. The rousing applause of affirmation at the conclusion of the song demonstrated how deeply the music had touched the congregation.

You know, that kind of experience doesn't (usually) just happen. It takes planning, rehearsing, and the willingness of folks to share their gifts, time, and talents. It also requires some other things:

Supplies (sheet music and hymnals)

Equipment (piano, organ, instruments)

Leaders (someone trained to select appropriate music, capable of teaching and conducting it, able to play instruments, etc)

A facility (a place for rehearsing and performing)

And all of these things have something in common – they have a cost. Sometimes it is easy to forget that all the good things we experience at FBC could not happen without the financial resources provided through the Ministry Budget and BUOH in Missions.

Will you take a few moments to consider how you may be supportive of the many functions and activities here at FBC? Would you be willing to challenge yourself to move to a greater level of giving? Let us determine to make 2012 a year in which we move forward to even greater work in being a face of Christ in our community and world.

Looking for a Place to Serve? Consider These Opportunities

Breakfast Crew

Did you know that each Wednesday morning, a small crew of faithful folks, led by Joy Case, work to prepare a hot breakfast for the Rotary organization as they have their weekly meetings in Ferrell Hall? This team of breakfast preparers would welcome others who can arrive early and who are willing to serve. Preparation usually begins around 6am, with breakfast being served by 7:30am. Everyone enjoys a nice breakfast together, and then the clean-up is usually complete by 9:15am! The proceeds from the breakfast support the Youth Ministry.

English as a Second Language

On Tuesday and Thursday mornings, from 10:00am to Noon, our church hosts English language learning classes for the community. Substitute teachers are welcomed.

If you would like more information about these opportunities or wish to offer yourself to help, please contact Tammy Snellings in the church office. Please call 373-4402 or email tammy@fredericksburgbaptistchurch.org
