Here are other ways that your church can offer assistance to hurting people in Haiti:

1) PRAY - Pray for families who lost loved ones in the disaster. Pray for relief organizations. Pray for Dr. Steve James, Nurse Nancy James, and Scott Hunter, CBF field personnel in Haiti coordinating the efforts to help.

2) GIVE - Financial contributions are best thing everyone can give right now. Money will be needed in order to fund the relief needs. You can donate through the fund established by CBF Atlanta:

The official CBF giving channel for the Haiti Relief effort has been set up. You can give online Donate Haiti Relief or by sending a check to Cooperative Baptist Fellowship, P.O. Box 101699, Atlanta, GA 30392, indicating fund No. 17015 "Haiti Response."

3) GO - In time many, many persons will be needed in the long-term efforts Cooperative Baptists and partners will engage in. Varying skills will be needed. Medical personnel and people to help with collection and distribution of supplies.

Chris Boltin, short term assignments and partnerships manager at the CBF Resource Center in Atlanta, offered this word: "We need to hear from you so that when specific projects are identified, we will be able to quickly match the need with the resource." Those interested in serving in Haiti should visit CBF Disaster-Response-Application to list their skills and experience. The first teams will be deploying as early as next week. You can also contact the national CBF office at 800-352-8741 for more information on volunteering.

You can follow the continuing developments at CBF Portal on Haiti Response.

Celebrating Gifts

This Sunday, January 24th, you will have an opportunity to follow up on your discovery packets at a Gifts Celebration, Part I. Plan to attend a one hour time of discussion at 8:30am, 9:45am, OR 12:15pm (light lunch provided) in Ferrell Hall. We will focus on individual gifts and the ways that God has equipped each of us within the Body of Christ.

Sunday, January 31st, we will gather as one group at 12:15pm (with lunch provided) in Ferrell Hall to talk about practical ways of applying our individual giftedness in Gifts Celebration, Part II.

As a church, we desire for every member to find fulfillment and meaning in the person God created him/her to be. Living into such purpose will impact needs in our "glocal" (global and local) community while also bringing discovery to the pieces of our lives that may have been missing.

Looking forward to journeying with you...

Emails Needed

In the coming months, we are looking to implement an online directory that will allow each member to log into a secure site and access directory information. This site will also allow you to search for ministry opportunities, track your areas of service, and find out about new activities and events. More information will be published as we approach the launching of the site, and should there be a need to withhold any of your directory information, you will be given the opportunity to do so before it is available for viewing. In the mean time, we need your help collecting updated email addresses. An email address is required for everyone that is listed on the site (shared emails across couples and families is okay) and will be the username by which members will login. Please email info@fredericksburgbaptistchurch.org with your preferred email by February 14th.

Thanks!
